Continuous Improvement
Clearfield Inc.*

Manufacturing professionals in job-transition need to stay active and current on continuous improvement and leadership best practices. However, it may be difficult to invest in yourself while between positions. Leverage available funding to enroll in certification, enhance your credentials, and become uniquely qualified for future employment.

Certifications offered include:

1. 6 Sigma Green Belt Certification
2. Lean Practitioner Certification
3. Lean Leader Certification
4. Supervision Fundamentals Certification

Certifications offered by the Manufacturers Alliance may be completed within 6 months and paid for by a third-party such as a MN Workforce Center. The process to determine if you are eligible is easy:

1. Contact us to determine which Certification is best for you
2. Provide contact information for your counselor
3. We will coordinate payment and help you enroll in Certification

“It is a great opportunity to take workshops by people who have performed the function in manufacturing companies. Our instructors were Six Sigma Black Belts and have trained many Green Belts and led projects. I give the class two thumbs up!”
