

Strategy Deployment Online

Is your annual plan documented, understood by all and have the resources it needs? Part of the Sr. Lean Practitioner Certification

Your instructor:

Charlie Garrett is an operations leader with over 25 years of broad-based manufacturing and consulting experience. He has expertise in all areas of manufacturing including: supply chain process improvement, value stream management, process design, program management, lean manufacturing, strategic planning, total productive maintenance, change management and training development and delivery in the Manufacturing, Window & Door, Medical Device, Chemical, Health Care, Automotive and Food & Beverage industries. Charlie has a degree in Operations Management from the University of St Thomas.

Guide your organization to a better future state, allow for problems to be escalated, strategy to be deployed, and accountability to be clear. In this experiential, online workshop you will learn how to translate large company problems into annual objectives that have the required resources to be successful.

Course Objectives:

- ◆ Define the Sr. Lean Practitioner Model
- ◆ Understand the strategy deployment framework and purpose
- ◆ Understand what is required to successfully apply the framework
- ◆ Recognize common pitfalls of implementation and remedies for each
- ◆ Align strategic priorities with A3 Improvement projects and quick win's
- ◆ Create your own strategy deployment matrix
- ◆ Develop a plan to ensure successful adoption of the matrix
